Journalist Lauren Wolfe
“The other red line: Sexualized violence in Syria and beyond”
Tues, Nov 19 • 7pm • PAIS 230

Ms. Wolfe is an award-winning journalist who has written for publications from The Atlantic to The Guardian. She is currently the director of WMC’s Women Under Siege, a journalism project on sexualized violence in conflict originated by Gloria Steinem at the Women’s Media Center in New York. The project includes a live, crowd-sourced map of sexualized violence in Syria. Wolfe serves on the advisory committee of the Nobel Women’s Initiative’s International Campaign to Stop Rape & Gender Violence in Conflict.
