THE 4TH ANNUAL EMORY

21 Days of Peace

BUILDING PEACE LOCALLY AND GLOBALLY

A CONVERSATION WITH AMBASSADOR BISA WILLIAMS AND EMORY STUDENT PEACE BUILDERS

FRIDAY, SEPT 20, 2019 NOON-2PM
LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED

Former Ambassador Bisa Williams is The Carter Center's Special Advisor for Mali and Team Leader of The Carter Center's Mission as Independent Observer of the Implementation of the Agreement for Peace and Reconciliation in Mali, a first-of-its kind model for post-conflict accountability in Africa.

In 2016, she co-founded Williams Strategy Advisors, LLC, a problem-solving consulting firm specializing in accelerating the realization of major infrastructure projects. Before forming WSA, she was a career member of the Foreign Service of the U.S. Department of State and held a number of senior positions including Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs (2013-2015), U.S. Ambassador to the Republic of Niger (2010-2013), acting Deputy Assistant Secretary for Western Hemisphere Affairs (2010), Coordinator for Cuban Affairs (2007-2010), and National Security Council Director for International Organizations at The White House (2005-2007).

She holds Master degrees from the National War College of the National Defense University in Washington, DC and the University of California, Los Angeles, and received her Bachelor of Arts degree cum laude from Yale.

The goal of Emory 21 Days of Peace is to educate, inspire, and empower students with tangible skills to work for peace both in their local and global communities.
